Notes and sources of information

CHILD 6 - Mary C. GREENE-24 (Continued)

These sources were used for the following notes concerning research into the possible ancestry of Mary Leach's father, Rufus Greene:

Louise Brownell Clarke, EXCERPTS FROM THE GREENES OF RHODE ISLAND, compiled from MSS. of the late Major General George Sears Greene, USA (New York: 1903), pp. 214-219, REPRESENTATIVE MEN AND OLD FAMILIES OF RHODE ISLAND, GenealogicalRecords and Historical Sketches of Prominent and Representative Citizens and of Many of the Old Families. . ., 3 v. (Chicago, J. H. Beers, 1908,), pp. 1282, 1283.

VITAL RECORDS OF RHODE ISLAND, "East Greenwich--Births & Deaths", p. 120.

NOTES: These notes concern Rufus Greene & Betsey Weed, parents of Mary C. Greene, wife of John Crum Leach. Rufus & Betsey were married in Hinesburg, Chittenden Co., VT, 30 August 1807. Rufus died 6/7 April 1847 in Hopkinton, St. Lawrence Co., NY, at age 60 from consumption. His birth year was about 1787. It was calculated from his age at the time of his death. Betsey Greene & two of her sons, Melville & Ira, were in Somers, Kneosha Co., WI, at the time of the 1850 census. [These compilers believe that John & Mary knew each other in NY; but to date, we have not been able to locate either John or Mary on the 1850 census.] Although we have researched Greenes in New York, Rhode Island, & Vermont, we have found no conclusive information about Rufus Greene's parents or siblings. [We believe, however, that he was possibly a descendant of Rufus Greene (Jabez, James, Surgeon John) of "E. Greenwich" & Martha, daughter of Joseph Russell, Jr., of Dartmouth, MA. Their children were Abraham, b. 2 Oct 1736; Russell, b. 9 1738/39, d. age 29 from drowning; Phebe, b. 20 Oct 1740; Mary, b. 20 Mar 1743; Joseph, b. 20 Mar 1745; Rufus, b. 17 Jan 1747; William, b. 13 Mar 1749; Caleb, b. 31 [sic] Jun 1751; Charles, b. 28 Jul 1753; Stephen, b. 16 Jan 1756; Martha, b. 20 Apr 1758, d. 30 Apr 1759; Jonathan & David, b. 16 Apr 1760; & Martha, b. 23 Jan 1763. The grandchildren of Rufus Greene & Martha Russell have been identified with the exception of the children born to Rufus, b. 1747, & his wife, Margaret, & William, b. 1749, & his wife, Mary Sheffield. Rufus & Margaret had a daughter, Nancy, b. 1770, in RI; but it is likely that Rufus & William moved to New York State before their other children were born.

Three other children of Rufus & Martha Greene lived &/or died in NY. Mary, wife of John Reynolds, moved to Hancock, Delaware Co., NY; Martha, wife of George Harris, moved to Stamford, Schoharie Co., NY; & David, a mariner, died in NY in 1792, his wife, Eunice Hopkins, died in Lawrence/Laurens, Otsego Co., NY, in 1836.

Was Rufus Greene, b. about 1787, husband of Betsey Weed, & father of Mary C. Greene, a son of either Rufus or William Greene? A suggestion of a possible relationship was provided when it was discovered that Jonathan, a younger brother of Rufus & William Greene, was a close neighbor of John Weed, Betsey Weed's father.

Early New York State vital records do not exist and Vermont records are incomplete; therefore, alternative sources of Greene vital information need to be found. Many questions need answers, but chance, just plain luck, & perseverance may play a part in finding answers to the Green ancestry. A look at census & other available records for Mary's siblings may prove helpful.

Dear Betty,

You sure have been doing a lot of work on John's family. I wish I had more answers for you but I don't.

If you are going to Pittsford you will find the Congregational Church cemetery in the center of town and the graves of Jacob, Sarah and Amasa, as I recall, are in the first three rows, beware of the briars, unless they have cleaned it up since 1972. It was a thrill to find an ancestor in such a mess of weeds

The software that I am using is Roots III by Commsoft, also their Roots Writer, that works with Roots III, a calendar.and several others. Just installed a CD-ROM drive and ordered a disk with over 200 New England genealogies, which I have yet to receive, hope it isn't what they call vapor ware.

All of the records on John's children that I sent you, came from the IGI at the local Family History Library.

I found no other Anson Weeds in my records, the history of Hinesburg that you sent does leave something to be desired. I think that Jonathan Green was one of the early purchasers of land and that he later sold it to Anson. It also lists Lockwood Mead who married Mercy Weed who died at Hinesburg in 1829.

If you get to the NEHGS look for any manuscripts of a Frederick W. Wead/Weed, who did considerable work on our line. He was the grand son of Jacob Jr. of Malone, NY (this is ad lib so don't quote the relationship, all of my records are in another place). I need proof of parents of the wives of:

Ezra Wead, son of Jacob, married Lydia Mills at Pittsford 1807. She probably was the daughter of Luke and Lydia (Edes) Mills and born Needham, MA

Kilbourn Wead, son of Ezra, married Fanny Hathaway at

Dear Mrs Leach,

Sorry to be so late in returning information that maybe of some use in the NEHGS library. The enclosed is far from complete but will at least give you an outline, but it does contain more than what I first sent you. Hope that you are finding a lot of treasures in your research.

I have been waiting for a new program that may help me organize the years accumulation of paper. The manuscript that I was interested in was by Frederick W. Wead. What I need is the parents of Fanny Hathaway, wife of #11, and any documentation on the parents of Lydia Mills, wife of #10, which could possibly be in his manuscript. I believe that Frederick continued the work of his father Leslie.

Sincerely,

Charles E. Teske

Dear Mrs. Tesh

I'm sorry to be so slow in answering your letter.

In our search we have not seen the name Ezra (Wead) Weed in connection with John Weed. But now that we're alerted to the connection, you never know.

In the little book, 1861 History & Tales of Shrewsbury, Vermont by Erastus Bostwick, we found the following info on P 18.

"to John Weed from Pittsford Mass. to his heirs"

We felt this was probably Pittsfield, MA, because on Dorothy Phelps (Orcutt mother) Gravestone in Shelburne, VT, it stated - relict of Lemuel Phelps, late of Pittsfield, MA.

Phelps Family History stated that Lemuel Phelps became a Shaker.

But actually Pittsford, VT, could be involved, too.

Continuing with the quote.

"Mr. John Weed bought of Elisha Lawrence lot 67-68 in the first Division on the 15th of Nov. 1787, he was married to Dolly Phelps, Feb 5th 1787, the first clearing made on said lot was by his Brother Hezekiah Weed in 1788 and built a cabin, moved into it with a wife and one child, stayed about 3 years & then left."

b. 16 Sep 1790

Betsey Weed, John Weed's daughter, married Rufus Greene. Their daughter, Mary C. Greene married John Cuno Leach ca 1854, probably in Wisc., Their youngest son, Edward John Leach married Elizabeth King. Their youngest son, Edward Jones Leach, Sr., married Vera Eleanor Chandler. They were (are) my husband's parents.

Please let's share helpful information if we find it. We appreciate your information about John Weed.

Thank goodness Hinesburg, VT, kept good early records.

Sincerely
Betty Leach

P.S. I wish we had more at this time. Will be in the SF Bay area during Oct + Dec., so I hope to get to the Archives + the Suter Library for some research.

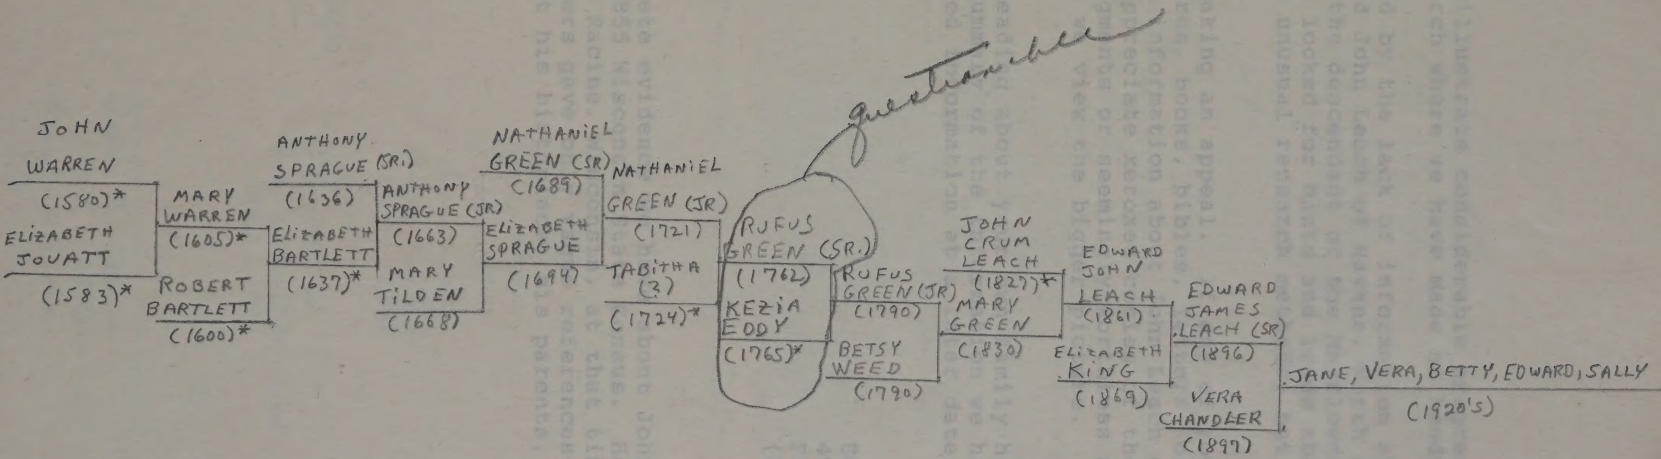
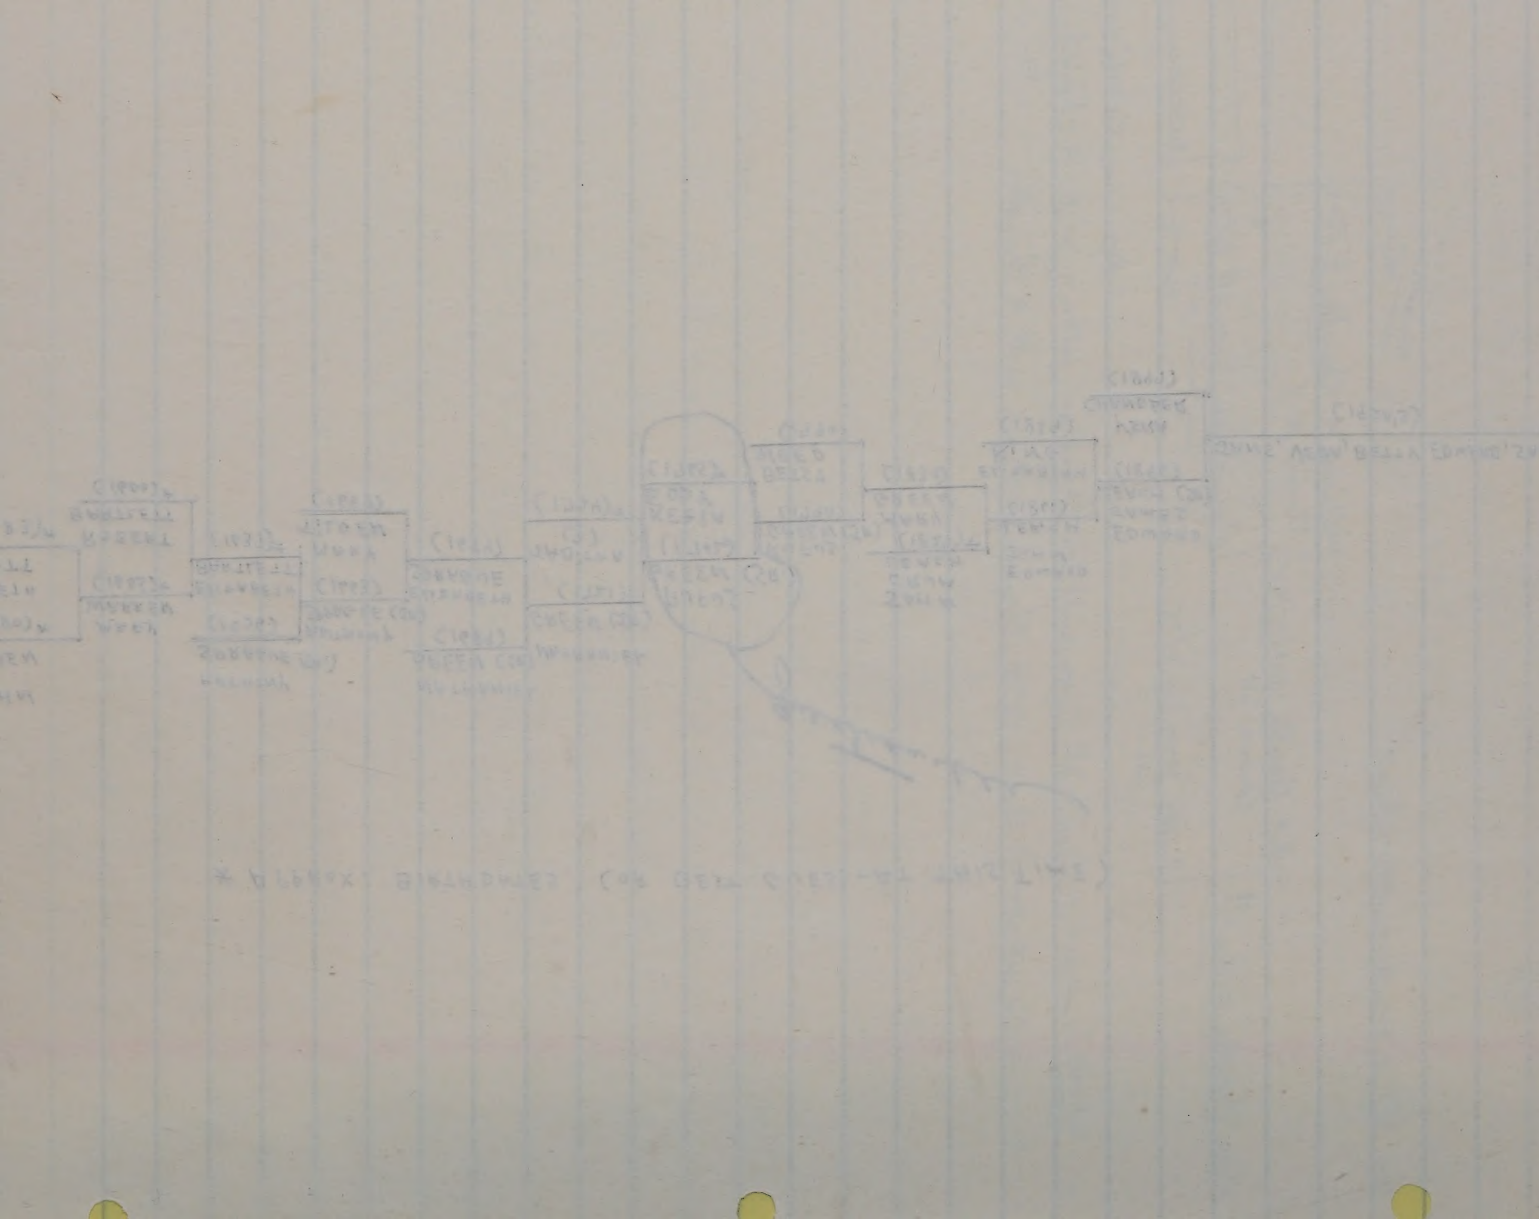
* APPROX. BIRTHDATES (OR BEST GUESS-AT THIS TIME)





The enclosed pages illustrate considerable progress, but we have some areas of research where we have made no headway at all.

We are still stymied by the lack of information about John Crum Leach, the father of Edward John Leach of Havana, North Dakota. John's wife, Mary C. Green, was the descendant of the Mayflower Pilgrim, Richard Warren. As we have looked for hints and leads about John Leach, we have used usual and unusual research methods; but nothing works.

Therefore, we are making an appeal. If any of you have any old family records, e.g. pictures, books, bibles, letters, or other memorabilia which might contain information about John Leach or other family members, we would appreciate xeroxed copies of the pages or papers involved. Even fragments or seemingly worthless material can sometimes make sense as we view the bigger picture.

We hope you enjoy reading about your own family history. The enclosed pages are a rough summary of the information we have found. We hope to provide more detailed information at a later date.

PS The first concrete evidence we have about John Leach was his appearance on the 1855 Wisconsin State Census. He was living in Somers between Kenosha and Racine, Wisconsin, at that time. Even his obituary from Racine newspapers gave only vague references about him. There was no information about his birthplace, his parents, or his siblings.

on serv. in the war of 1675, but d. bef. May 1677, when his wid. Susanna had leave to sell est. Trumbull, Col. Rec. II. 310. STEPHEN, Haverhill, m. 24 Mar. 1663, Hannah, d. of John Ayer of Salisbury. STEPHEN, Newbury, by Coffin, thot. s. of John of the same, m. 1 Nov. 1698, Sarah, d. of Nathaniel Clark, had Joanna, and Sarah, b. 10 Dec. 1701, prob. tw. but Coffin does not say so much. THOMAS, Boston, mariner, adm. of the ch. 7 Apr. 1644, and freem. next mo. THOMAS, Hampton, brot. to Watertown, by his mo. Margery, then w. of William Godfrey, perhaps 1638, from Ormsby in Co. Norfolk, where he had been bapt. 20 Nov. 1631, and from W. to Hampton carried in youth by Godfrey, m. 2 Nov. 1657, Sarah Brewer, perhaps d. of Thomas of Roxbury, had Mary, b. 19 Dec. 1658; Sarah, 22 Jan. 1661; Hannah, 27 Dec. 1663; Thomas, 20 Jan. 1665; Ebenezer, 1 Aug. 1667; Isaac, 2 Apr. 1670; John, 16 Feb. 1674; Joshua, 8 Nov. 1676; and Abigail, 1 Jan. 1679; sw. alleg. Feb. 1669, and d. 5 Jan. 1715, tho. Farmer in MS. says Feb. in 84th yr. This is the ancestor of the conspicuous lawyers wh. the research of Farmer ascert. THOMAS, Northampton, s. of Gov. John, m. 16 June 1663, Abigail, d. of George Alexander of the same, had Abigail, b. 9 Jan. 1668, d. soon; Abigail, again, 10 Jan. 1669; George, 7 Nov. 1670; John, 26 Nov. 1673; rem. next yr. to Northfield, thence driv. 1675 by the Ind. wh. destroy. his prop. he sat down at Hadley, sw. alleg. there 8 Feb. 1679, and had Eliz. 26 Nov. 1676; Thankful, 12 Jan. 1679; and Mary, 25 May 1681; again went to Northfield, there d. 1686, and his wid. d. bef. Mar. 1690. THOMAS, Hampton, s. of Thomas of the same, m. as is suggest. in Bond's Hist. of Watertown, his cous. d. of William Godfrey, but whether this be so, is doubt. By w. Sarah, wh. d. 15 Feb. 1718, he had Sarah, b. 15 Sept. 1690; Thomas, 1693; Mary, 19 May 1696; Alice, 5 Aug. 1698; Joshua, 2 Sept. 1703; Abigail, 15 Apr. 1706; Samuel, 3 Apr. 1708; and Eliz. 11 Jan. 1711; and he d. at Kingston, 7 Mar. 1733. WILLIAM, Hadley, s. of Gov. John, in his MS. by Farmer said (follow. tradit. prob. without reason) to be b. 1617; sw. alleg. 8 Feb. 1679; m. 17 Feb. 1670, Mary, d. of Thomas Reeve of Springfield, wh. brot. him no ch. but was accus. of familiarity with the devil, sent all the way to Boston for trial as witch in 1684, and yet was not found guilty. Had it been very few yrs. later, the result might have been differ. when the gr. adversary was foil. with his own weapons, as in the Goodwin case. He d. a. 1688, and his wid. was permit. to live till 1696. WILLIAM, Boston, m. Mary, d. of capt. Samuel Mosely or Maudsley, may have had s. of the same name, wh. d. 28 Dec. 1725, aged 28. Farmer says that in 1834, ten of this name had been gr. at Harv. six at Yale, and twelve at the other N. E. coll.

WEDGEWOOD, JOHN, Hampton 1639, had, in 1637, when he belong to Ipswich, serv. in the Pequot war, and was wound. but in Oct. of the later yr. was sentenc. to be set in the stocks for being in the comp. of drunk. See Col. Rec. I. 269. No doubt his conversat. improv. for his will of 24 Nov. 1654, pro. 10 Apr. foll. names w. Mary, and five ch. John, the eldest, Jonathan, David, Mary, and Abigail. JONATHAN, Hampton, s. of the preced. took the o. of alleg. 26 May 1669, and once more, 16 Dec. 1678.

WEEBON, STEPHEN, wh. d. at Boston, Sept. 1659, inv. of whose goods and clothing, 16 Nov. foll. is in Geneal. Reg. IX. 348, from Prob. Rec. III. 171, was, I judge, only casual visitor, perhaps from the West Ind. and the expense of his board was to be reimburs. by his host being made admin. He may have come only from New York, under the Dutch, and had very small stock.

WEED, DANIEL, Stamford, s. of Jonas, had been of Rye 20 yrs. bef. he d. 29 Nov. 1697, leav. four s. and a d. whose names are not found. GEORGE, Salisbury, s. of John of the same, took o. of alleg. 20 Dec. 1677, at the same time with his f. and brs. Samuel and John. JOHN, Salisbury, m. 14 Nov. 1650, Deborah, d. of Samuel Wensley, or Winsly, had Samuel, b. 15 Feb. 1652; Mary, 5 Sept. 1653; John, 1 Nov. 1655; Ann, 26 July 1657; Deborah, 15 June 1659; George, 25 May 1661; and Ephraim, 24 Feb. 1667. He was, it is said, b. a. 1627, and his d. Deborah m. 29 Nov. 1677, Christopher Barnard the sec. of Newbury. JOHN, Stamford, s. of Jonas of the same, m. Joanna Westcoat, d. of Richard, had Jonas, b. 1665; Daniel, 1667; John; Samuel; Joseph; Isaac; Mary; and Hannah, all nam. when the inv. was brot. in 15 Jan. 1690. JONAS, the freem. of 18 May 1631, of wh. nothing more is told, exc. by Bond wh. discov. from Trumbull, Col. Rec. I. 2, that he had been dism. from the ch. of Watertown to that of Wethersfield, but the date in Bond, p. 963, 29 May 1635, is by me confidently read 29 Mar. 1636. Of course he came in the fleet of 1630, and by Bond's reasonab. conject. in the ship with Sir Richard Saltonstall. I find a Jonas, perhaps his s. at Stamford 1669, then seek. to be made freem. of Conn. but he is accomp. in the same good purpose by JOHN wh. may be gr.s. of the first Jonas. Mr. Judd enlarges our acquaint. with him by tell. that he was of Stamford 1642, until he d. 1676, his inv. being of 5 June in that yr. He made his will Nov. 1672, nam. four s. John, Daniel, Jonas, and Samuel, four ds. Mary, w. of George Abbot; Dorcas Wright, w. of James; Hannah, m. 5 Jan. 1670, Benjamin Hoyt; and Sarah. His wid. Mary, d. early in 1690, at least her inv. was brot. in 10 Mar. of that yr. JONAS, Stamford, s. of the preced. m. 16 Nov. 1670, Bethia, d. of John Holley, had perhaps ch. not certain. kn.

Farmer notes that in 1834, seven of this name had been gr. at N. E. coll. of wh. I find four at Yale, two at Harv.

WEEDEN, EDWARD, Boston, came in the Susan and Ellen from London 1635, aged 22, by w. Eliz. d. of Samuel Cole, had Samuel, b. Aug. 1644; John; Edward; and Eliz. wh. m. a. 1673, Sampson Cole (perhaps her first cous.), Hannah, and Mary. In a deed of June 1672, these six ch. unit. with their f. wh. calls hims. of Rumney Marsh, carpenter, in convey. six acres of meadow on E. point of Hog island in B. EDWARD, Boston, s. of the preced. may have been that soldier in Mosely's comp. in Philip's war, whose name is writ. Weaden, wh. see; by w. Jane had Dorothy, b. 22 Apr. 1687; and Edward, 3 July 1688. JAMES, Portsmouth, R. I. came in the Martin, 1638, to Boston, there, with Chad Brown, 13 July, pro. the nuncup. will of Sylvester Baldwin, a fellow-passeng. is on the list of freem. at P. 1655, and call. senr. JAMES, Newport, in the list of freem. 1655, call. junr. may be thot. s. of the preced. by w. Mary, had James, b. 7 Jan. 1674. JOHN, Boston, s. of Edward the first, by w. Ruth had Sarah, b. 16 Nov. 1687. He may have been br. of the sec. Edward, as the ws. of both join. Mather's ch. in 1691. ROBERT, Salem 1638, then by Felt, spelt Wheaden. SAMUEL, Newport, by Benedict enumer. among the founders of the ch. 1644. WILLIAM, Newport, one of the founders of the Bapt. ch. 1644, may have been br. of the preced. and is found in Dr. Stiles's list of freem. there 1655, and a deac. d. 1676, early in that yr. nam. one of the trustees of a charity.

WEEDER, JAMES, Newport, among the freem. of 1655, unless the last letter should be n, as seems prob.

WEEKS, AMMIEL, Dorchester, perhaps s. of George of the same, brot. in early youth, freem. 1657, by w. Eliz. had Eliz. b. 18 Oct. 1657; Thankful, 24, bapt. 29 Apr. 1660; Ammiel, 15, bapt. 21 Sept. 1662; Ebenezer, b. 15 May 1665; Joseph, 3 Sept. 1667; Supply, 26 Aug. 1671; Thomas, 20 Nov. 1673; and Hannah, 14 May 1676; and he d. 20 Apr. 1679, aged 46. His wid. d. 10 Apr. 1723, aged 89. Eliz. m. 20 Mar. 1679, Richard Mather, s. of Timothy, as one auth. assures me, while old Dorchester, in Geneal. Reg. V. 467, asserts that her h. was Timothy. AMMIEL, Dorchester, s. of the preced. m. 21 Nov. 1682, Abigail, d. of William Trescott, had Ammiel, b. 26 Feb. 1683; Abigail, 29 Apr. 1687; and George, 20 Mar. 1689; both the s. being rememb. in the will of their gr.f. T. leads one to presume the other ch. d. young. CHRISTOPHER, Boston, by w. Mary, had Christopher, b. 24 Sept. 1695; and Mary, 29 Nov. 1697. EBENEZER, Dorchester, s. of Ammiel the first, m. May 1689, Deliverance, d. of William Sumner, rem. to Boston, there had William, b. 20 Feb. 1690; Jane, 29 Mar. 1692; Eliz. 25 Oct. 1694; Hannah, 5 Jan. 1696; and Ebenezer, 17 Sept. 1699. FRANCIS, Providence 1637. But for insert. of this and the other R. I. numerous hosts, whose name is more common. spelt Wickes, ano. place may seem better. GEORGE, Dorchester, freem. 13 May 1640, brot. w. said to be Jane, sis. of Roger Clap, and s. Ammiel, William, and Joseph, tho. the last may have been b. at D. d. 27 Oct. 1659, says Farmer, foll. the town rec. in wh. date Geneal. Reg. V. 467 follows him; but the inv. in Geneal. Reg. VII. 334, unless the figures be wrong, proves that he d. 28 Dec. 1650, for it was taken 22 Jan. foll. and perhaps the d. of Oct. 1659 may have been of inf. s. of Ammiel the first. Plainly the numerals a. the inv. in Geneal. Reg. are erron. for aft. that date, four ch. of his are bapt. viz. John, 7 Mar. 1652; Eliz. 18 Sept. 1653, wh. prob. d. soon; William, 20 Aug. 1654; and Eliz. again, 14 Sept. 1656. In the Hist. of D. compiled, with unusual diligence, by Ebenezer Clapp, 137, is the true date. JOHN, Dorchester, perhaps s. of William of the same, m. 4 Nov. 1674, Sarah Hammond, but no more is kn. of him. JOSEPH, Dorchester, s. of George, prob. b. in Eng. m. 9 Apr. 1667, Mary, d. of maj. Humphrey Atherton, had Mary, b. 20 May 1668; Joseph, 26 Mar. bapt. 3 Apr. 1670, d. at 20 yrs.; Repent, 22, bapt. 27 Feb. 1675; and perhaps others. He was freem. 1673, and d. 31 Oct. 1690; and his wid. d. 17 Sept. 1692, aged 56, if the inscript. in Geneal. Reg. IV. 169, be not erron. as I suspect. It was a mistake of Dr. Harris, very easily made, to read the names of this man and his f. as Wilkes. JOSEPH, Dorchester, prob. s. of Ammiel the first, by w. Sarah, had Eliz. b. 31 Aug. 1691; Sarah, 3 Apr. 1693; Hannah, 6 Apr. 1695; Experience, 2 June 1697; and Thankful, 29 Apr. 1699. His w. d. 12 Feb. 1736, aged 74, says the gr.-st. LEONARD, Portsmouth, one of the men wh. stood rather for Mass. than for the crown, in 1665, as in our Col. Rec. IV. pt. 2, 270; by w. Early life and career

Weed was born in Potsdam, New York, the second of four children born to John Kilbourne and Charity Winslow Weed. He was appointed to the United States Military Academy, graduating 27th of 46 students in the Class of 1854. Among his classmates were ten other future Civil War generals, including Oliver O. Howard and J.E.B. Stuart. He received a brevet rank of second lieutenant and was assigned to the 2nd U.S. Artillery on July 1, 1854. He served on frontier duty in Texas. In December, he received his regular rank of second lieutenant in the 4th U.S. Artillery.

Two years later, he was promoted to first lieutenant and fought in Florida in the Seminole Wars in 1856–57. He was engaged in quelling the Kansas disturbances in 1858. By now a combat veteran in command of Battery B, 4th U.S. Artillery, he participated in the Utah War, helping restore order to the territory. He saw action again fighting Indians at the Battle of Egan Station in the Nevada Territory on August 11, 1860, and at the Battle of Deep Creek on September 6, 1860.

Civil War

With the outbreak of the Civil War, Weed was promoted Captain of the newly formed Battery I, 5th U.S. Artillery in May 1861. He remained at Camp Curtin in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, training his crews until the spring of 1862, when they served in the Peninsula Campaign and at Second Bull Run. He commanded his battery during the fierce artillery duel at Antietam. Promoted to command of all the artillery of the V Corps, his guns were in action at the Battle of Fredericksburg. From December 1862 through January 1863, he was stationed at Falmouth, Virginia. After a short leave of absence, he took part in the Battle of Chancellorsville, commanding the artillery of the 2nd Division, V Corps. On June 6, 1863, Weed left the regular army artillery to accept a commission as a brigadier general in the volunteer army.[1] He was assigned command of 3rd Brigade in the 2nd Division, V Corps.

Civil War

With the outbreak of the Civil War, Weed was promoted Captain of the newly formed Battery I, 5th U.S. Artillery in May 1861. He remained at Camp Curtin in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, training his crews until the spring of 1862, when they served in the Peninsula Campaign and at Second Bull Run. He commanded his battery during the fierce artillery duel at Antietam. Promoted to command of all the artillery of the V Corps, his guns were in action at the Battle of Fredericksburg. From December 1862 through January 1863, he was stationed at Fairmount, Virginia. After a short leave of absence, he took part in the Battle of Chancellorsville, commanding the artillery of the 2nd Division, V Corps. On June 6, 1863, Weed left the regular army artillery to accept a commission as a brigadier general in the volunteer army.[1] He was assigned command of 3rd Brigade in the 2nd Division, V Corps.

At Gettysburg, his brigade went to the relief of Col. Strong Vincent's brigade on Little Round Top. His vanguard repelled a Confederate attack that had outflanked Vincent's right. Col. Patrick O'Rorke of the 140th New York Infantry was killed leading that counterattack. Elements of Weed's brigade helped move the guns of Lt. Charles E. Hazlett's Battery D, 5th United States Artillery to the top of the hill. Weed was mortally wounded in the chest (possibly by a sharpshooter hidden in Devil's Den) while standing near these guns. His last words were reported as "I would rather die here than that the rebels should gain an inch of this ground." Lt. Hazlett was killed trying to hear what Weed was saying. Command of the brigade fell to Col. Kenner Garrard of the 146th New York Infantry.

Weed's body was returned home and buried in the Moravian Cemetery in New Dorp, a village on Staten Island in Richmond County, New York.

In memoriam

Redoubt A of the military defenses around Washington, D.C., was renamed "Fort Weed" in September 1863 in his memory. Following the war, Post #91 of the Grand Army of the Republic in New York City was named the Stephen H. Weed Post. In 1902, Army General Orders No. 16 renamed a portion of Fort Wadsworth along The Narrows in New York Harbor as Battery Weed.

erosity, and took an active interest in the civic improvement of his adopted city. He was married June 8, 1901, to Helen M., daughter of Franklin Murphy (q.v.), governor of New Jersey, and had four children: Janet, Mai, Constance and Margaret Kinney. He died at Red Bank, N. J., Jan. 5, 1925.

SUMNER, Osbourne Thomas, manufacturer and philanthropist, was born at Thomaston, Me., Spt. 23, 1862, son of Francis Marion and Lucy Jane (Benner) Sumner, of old New England ancestry. After an education in public schools and at the Bryant and Stratton Business College in Boston, he began his business career as bookkeeper for Tudor & Co. in New York city. Later he filled a similar post with the Dame & Townsend Co. of Thomaston, Me., in which firm he rapidly advanced and became its president, a post he retained throughout his active career. Mr. Sumner was a trustee of the Thomaston Savings Bank, served as first selectman, assessor and city auditor, and held a high place in Masonry. He bequeathed $5,000 to the New York Y.M.C.A. as a token of his "appreciation of the pleasures and benefits" he derived from its service as a stranger in New York; $2,500 to the New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor; $10,000 to the Thomaston Memorial Church; $1,000 to the town of Thomaston towards a public library; and a bequest to the Masonic lodge towards building a home. He never married. He died at Thomaston, Nov. 11, 1921.

WEED, Samuel Henry, clergyman, was born near Knightstown, Henry co., Ind., Nov. 5, 1843, son of Nathaniel and Jane (Turner) Weed. His first American ancestor was Jonas Weed, who came from Northamptonshire, England, to Boston, Mass., in 1630; and from him and his wife Mary the line of descent is through their son John and his wife Deborah Winsley; their son John and his wife Louise Richmond; their son Samuel; his son Reuben and his wife, a Messer (or Mepser); their son Nathaniel and his wife Polly Wiseman; and their son Andrew Weed and his wife Nancy Pressly, who were the grandparents of Samuel Henry Weed. He was graduated A.B. at Indiana University in 1864, receiving his A.M. degree there in 1865. During the Civil war he joined a home guard organization and in 1864 enlisted in Co. K, 133d Ind. volunteers, with which he served four months. He was graduated at the Theological Seminary of the Northwest at Monmouth, Ill., and licensed to preach by the presbytery of northern Indiana at Davenport, Ia., in 1867, with the degree B.D. Appointed home missionary in western Illinois he held several pastorates and built churches at Colona and Hillsdale. While living at Colona he taught a private school, conducted a printing business and held several public offices. After 1903 he lived in Monmouth, Ill., where he cultivated a small fruit farm. Mr. Weed coined the word "chiropractic," meaning "done by hand," at the request of Dr. D. D. Palmer, the originator of the method of therapy or treatment known by that name. Widely intellectual, Mr. Weed translated the New Testament from the original Greek and portions of the Old Testament from the Hebrew; he studied law, was familiar with astronomy, wrote poems for special occasions and was an expert accountant. He was married at Rock Island, Ill., July 14, 1869, to Mary Jane, daughter of George Smith Davidson of New York city, and they had eleven children: Elizabeth Jane, wife of William Ferguson; James Andrew; Martha Isabel, wife of Theodore M. Millen; Robert Henry; Fannie Blanche, wife of Rev. A. Campbell Bailey; Dora Irene; Georgia C.; Margaret Edith, wife of Dr. Charles L. Gillette; Ethel Lois; Mary Leora, wife of Everett McCallister; and Katharine Viola, wife of Rev. Carroll V. Day. He died at Monmouth, Ill., July 21, 1927.

CODMAN, Richard, architect, was born in Boston, Mass., Jan. 31, 1842, son of Charles Russell and Sarah (Ogden) Codman, and a descendant of Robert Codman, described as a "mariner," who arrived at Salem, Mass., in 1637, and resided at various times at Haverhill, Hartford, and Salisbury, before settling finally at Edgartown, Martha's Vineyard, where he died in 1678. From Robert the line of descent runs through Stephen and Elizabeth (Randall) Codman; Capt. John and Parnell (Foster) Codman; John, 2d, and Abigail (Soley) Codman; John, 3d, and Margaret (Russell) Codman, Mr. Codman's grandparents. His maternal grandfather was David Ogden, member of the fifteenth congress, former law partner of Alexander Hamilton, and founder of the city of Ogdensburg, N. Y. After completing his preparatory education in the Dixwell School, Boston, Mr. Codman entered Harvard College, where he was graduated A.B. in 1864 and A.M. in 1870. During his college career, he was a member of the important student clubs, including the D. K. E., the A. D. and the Porcellian. Being the possessor of independent means, he adopted no regular profession in the early years of his career, and spent much of his time in foreign travel. In 1865, he made an extensive tour of Europe with his wife, visiting many countries and meeting prominent people of all nations. After his return, he resided for some time in Boston, but later removed to an estate in West Roxbury, where he continued for many years. Following the Boston fire of 1872, at which time several buildings owned by him were destroyed and insurance companies in which he held policies failed, he devoted his attention to the design and execution of decorations for the interior of buildings, a department formerly left to the architects, and not infrequently neglected. So great was his natural talent for such work and so effective his designs, that he was soon recognized as a valuable coadjutor by architects and was called in consultation, in regard to internal arrangements, by many leaders of the profession. On several occasions his services were retained by owners of large estates to superintend from the beginning the project of laying out grounds, designing and erecting buildings, and effecting interior decorations. In such assignments, he worked in concert with landscape architects and building designers. As one of the earliest workers in interior design, he eventually achieved national reputation, and during the twenty-six years of his active career filled commissions in Boston, New York, Newport, Chicago, Milwaukee, and other large cities, actually laying the foundations of an art since recognized as a definite branch of building. Apart from his profession and the arts associated with it, he was interested in horticulture and arboriculture, and during the last thirty years of his life, in particular, devoted attention to the beautification of his estate in West Roxbury, Mass. He traveled extensively, hav-

Mr. Daniel Hopkins was then invited to preach on probation; and, nothing coming of this, Mr. Daniel Collins preached in like manner until the first of September, 1763, when the town voted, thirty-two to three, to invite him to settle; but an adjourned meeting, four days afterwards, was so thinly attended, — and eight appearing against Mr. Collins, — that it was considered useless to make him any offers; and so the minority again triumphed.[1]

On the 9th of December, 1763, the town decided to invite Mr. Thomas Allen of Northampton to preach as a probationer; and his ministry in that capacity was signalized by the formation of the church, — a duty which it seems had, up to this time, been singularly neglected. On the 7th of February, 1764, "a number of members belonging to different churches" met at the house of Deacon Crofoot; Rev. Samuel Hopkins of Great Barrington, Rev. Stephen West of Stockbridge, and Rev. Ebenezer Martin of Becket (then No. 4), being also present. A Confession of Faith and a Covenant were drawn up, and signed by eight male members, "who then and there united so as to form a church of Christ in this place."[2]

The eight names signed to the covenant and articles of faith are, Stephen Crofoot, Ephraim Stiles, Daniel Hubbard, Aaron Baker, Jacob Ensign, William Phelps, Lemuel Phelps, Elnathan Phelps. Col. Williams, Capt. Goodrich, and other prominent inhabitants, were connected with churches in other places, but did not transfer their membership until some months later.

After the proceedings at Deacon Crofoot's house, those who had Morgan, John Waddams, Phinehas Belding, Lemuel, William, and Elnathan Phelps, Israel Dickinson, Israel Stoddard, Israel and Elisha Jones, of whom the last four, at least, were of the Williams-Stoddard connection, while William Williams was one of the Selectmen to whom the petition was addressed.

[1] Mr. Collins was afterwards, for many years, the minister of Lanesborough, dying in office, at the age of eighty-four, in 1822. He was a worthy man, but was suspected of Toryism in Revolutionary times. His election as minister of Pittsfield might have somewhat changed the complexion of the town's story.

[2] The designation, "The Church of Christ in Pittsfield," was assumed in accordance with the custom of similar bodies where but one existed in a town. It was the only form used until 1817, when after the re-union of the parish, which had been divided in 1809, the present name of "The First Congregational Church" was adopted, partly because the old style, other churches having been formed in town, savored too much of asserting an exclusive claim to the Christian name, and partly because circumstances rendered it expedient for the organization to re-asse its adherence to the Congregational form of church-government.

and Charles Goodrich, Israel Stoddard, Israel Dickinson, and Col. Wm. Williams; south were Col. Easton, Sylvanus Piercey, Ezekiel Root, Daniel Miller, James Lord, and Elisha Jones. Rufus Allen kept a public house on the corner now occupied by William B. Cooley [in 1868, by the Berkshire Life Insurance Company], and farther north, towards Lanesboro', were Joseph Allen, and the families by the name of Baker and Keeler. On the road eastward of Daniel Weller's, or near it, were the Fairfields, David Bush, Eli Root, Esq., Hezekiah Jones, Wm. Brattle, and Solomon Deming. Col. Williams early moved on to this road from the spot where Levi Goodrich now lives, and where Lieut. Graves settled after him. Charles Goodrich, Esq., left the farm on which he first lived, and settled near him.

A large portion of the early settlers were from Westfield, — all by the name of Ashley, Bagg, Bush, Cadwell, Dewey, Francis, Hubbard, Noble, Piercey, Sackett, Stiles, Taylor, and Weller. Hezekiah Jones was also from this town. Those of the name of Brattle, Deming, Goodrich, Gunn, Lord, Robbins, and Willard were from Wethersfield, Ct. The Allens, Bakers, Fairfields, Phelpses, Stoddards, Strongs, and Wrights were from Northampton; and the Crofoots from Belchertown.

1759. The following persons are understood from circumstances to have moved into the town this year; viz., Samuel Birchard, Daniel Hubbard, Daniel and Jesse Sackett, and Jonathan Taylor. I say are understood from circumstances to have moved in this year; for there is no inconsiderable difficulty in finding exactly, at this time, at what period the early settlers planted themselves here. . . . In 1760, David and Oliver Ashley, William Francis, and Gideon Gunn are understood to have become settlers. Joshua Robbins and Ezekiel Root became inhabitants before the incorporation of the town. . . . In 1761, Gideon Goodrich, James Lord, Charles Miller, Thomas Morgan, Daniel and David Noble, Wm. Phelps, and John Remington are understood to have become inhabitants.

In 1762–3–4, the following persons are understood to have settled here; namely, Phinehas Belden, Solomon Crosby, Israel Dickinson, Elisha Jones, John Morse, David Roberts, Aaron Stiles, Israel Stoddard, John and Caleb Wadhams, Aaron and Phinehas Baker, Wm. Brattle, Col. James Easton, Benjamin and Josiah Goodrich, Moses Miller, Joseph Phelps, Amos Root, John Williams, Rev. Thomas Allen, Jas. D. Colt, Ezra and King Strong, Dr. —— Colton, Rufus Allen, John Strong; and a number of others probably became inhabitants during these years. Not long after, Joseph Allen, David Bagg, Lieut. Moses Graves, Woodbridge Little, Esq., Col. Oliver Root, Ebenezer White, and many others, settled in town.

Most of the inhabitants who have been mentioned settled on the house-lots; some, on the squares.

Col. Williams and Elisha Jones were from Weston; Lieut. Graves and Israel Dickinson were from Hatfield; Thomas Morgan was from Springfield, and John Remington from West Springfield. Ebenezer White was from Hadley. David Roberts was from Hartford, and Jacob Ensign from West

This Jacob was the son of Jacob Weed, Sr. of Pittsford, Vt. and grandson of Samuel of Danbury, Conn. This Sam'l appears to have been the son of another Samuel, who was son of the Jonas Weed who came over in 1630, probably in the ship with Sir Richard Salstonstall, who was made freeman of Watertown, Mass. in 1631, was in the company that founded Wethersfield, Conn. and later went to Stamford where he d. in 1676. In his will the name of Samuel appeared as the sixth child and the 4th son. Samuel appears to have died in Danbury in 1708, leaving a widow Mary, and four children, Jacob of age, Samuel and 2 more under age. This Samuel, Jr. who must have been born after 1686, is identified as the Samuel who died in Danbury leaving at least 3 sons, these were (1) Benjamin (1721-1781) who m. Elizabeth Hubbell, and died in Lanesborough; his son Benj. and Daus. Deborah Wood and Huldah Wait lived around St. Albans and Swanton, Vt. (2) Jacob (1737-1813) who had numerous descendents, and (3) Eleazer.

Jacob Weed, Sr. was born in Danbury in 1736 or 37, married Sarah Kitterfield about 1758 and lived in Danbury till 1764 when they removed to what is now Dutchess Co. N. Y. leasing lands in that year from an Indian Chief Minhaw. These lands however had been included in a grant made a century before and known as Phillips Patent; litigation followed; the authorities of the colony of New York had several hearings on the matter, and it was even carried to the Lords of Trade in London. The very rare "narrative of the present controversy between the Wappinger Tribe of Indians and claimants under Phillips upper patent - - - - until Mar. 12, 1767. Hartford 1768" tells the settlers pitiful side of the case. Ultimately the settlers who had only the Indian title were driven off by the troops and lost nearly everything. Mrs. Weed with her three children was allowed to stay till the crop of flax was in condition to take with her. Then the family went to Lanesborough, Mass. which had been incorporated in 1765, and here the other seven children were born. Nearly all of the children had large families. Four of the eight sons in their later life spelled the name Weed, the other four, Wead. The town records (burned some 50 years ago) are said to have shown that during the Revolution Jacob Weed was on the Committee of Safety; his name appears in the Mass. Revolutionary Records in lists of troops sent on various expeditions in 1777, 1779 and 1780. In 1786 he bot 110 acres in Pittsford, Vt., made a clearing and built a house, and in this town he lived till he died. His tombstone records "In memory of Jacob Weed who died Feb. 1, 1813 in the 77 year of his age"; his widow"died Sep. 8, 1824 in her 86 year." Their oldest son, Amasa is also buried in Pittsford, having "died Oct. 25, 1852 AE 92 years". The fourth son, Hezekiah Wead (1767-1852) is buried in Malone, together with his widow, Rachel, and their sons Stephen and Ezbon. The next son Samuel (1774-1833 was the father of Samuel M. of Malone and De Forest Wead of Sheldon, Vt. and Mrs. S. S. Clark of Chateaugay. The youngest son, Ezra (about 1782-1845) had sons Kilburn and Norman who lived in Clinton Co. for a time. In passing it may be noted that Hon. Samuel M. Weed of Plattsburg is descended from a New Hampshire family and not from Jonas.

Doubt this derivation

From notes of Charles M Read. -

Some of them doubtful —

" Name Reed contraction of Reeden - which appears on the English records of a very early day. So apparently of Scandinavian origin akin to such words as Woden + Wednesday Ralph de Reeden - or Ralph of Reed - on Rec. extend in Buckinghamshire England A.D 1307 He bore arms "Argent - two bars sable: in chief three martlets. sable. Crest out of a ducal coronet or a flame issuant. ppr. ! -

The Reed family in this country date from 1630 when two brothers John + Jonas came to America with Sir. R. Saltonstall - Their home had been in Stanwick in the extreme north of Yorkshire near the Northumberland line. They had sailed from Yarmouth in april arriving at Salem Mass. in June 1630. John Reed settled in Newbury Mass. and from him are descended a large number in Maine, New Hampshire, and other parts of the country. Jonas went first to Watertown and later to Weathersfield Conn - After several years in that place he removed to Stamford - and remainder of his life

The History of Fairfield Co. page 692 states - "The first permanent settlement of the Town was made in the early part of 1640 by a number of sturdy pioneers from Weathersfield - who having become dissatisfied with certain rules and regulations governing the Parish. decided to seek a peaceful retreat elsewhere, and under the leadership of Mr Davenport of honored memory, who having been their champion in the dissensions at Milford, resolved to locate further inland. and in the following year - leaving their homes pursued their course westward and settled where is now the City of Stamford - then in the New Haven jurisdiction"

Huntington's History of Stamford states that the first Church of Stamford had already been organized in Weathersfield. Of seven men who constituted the W. Church four came to Stamford. Rev. Denton. Jonas Weed. Robert Coe. and Andrew Ward.

It thus appears that Jonas Weed was one of the four who planted the Standard of the Cross in Stamford - He died there in 1676 (1676) after a residence of 35 years. His will dated Fairfield Nov. 26th. 1672 refers to wife Mary and Children John, Daniel Jonas Mary (m George Abbot) Dorcas (m James Wright) Samuel Sarah + Hannah - Jonas was made freeman oct 14 1669 - Dec 1642 part of a house lot and land was made Jonas Weed

From letter by S.H. Mead to George Mead of Albany N.Y. about 1860 - "At time of massacre by the Huguenots in France - many persons fled into other countries for safety. Among them 3 brothers and their families by name of de Grasse - who found their way to Holland - thence to England - and later to the new World - Their occupation in dayous France was silk weaving - but in this country turned their attention to agriculture

"Jacob Mead the father spelled his name Mead as is shown by Rev. Records - The two older sons spelled it "Meed" All the others followed the lead of their fathers".

The identification of our Samuel IV. with the minor son of Samuel III (named in Hall's Hist of Danbury, p. 13 as Danbury Records to Records) is due to E.D. Weed of Pawtucket

mothers relations being *and spent some time in visiting

I made enquiry for the family record I was directed to the said Joseph Smith. Then I went and enquired of the old gentleman if he could give me any account of the family. He informed me that at the time of the great massacre of the Hugenots in France in 1680, at which time 10,000 Protestants were murdered in Lyons for their religion and that many persons fled into other countries for safety & among them were 3 brothers with their families by the name of Grasse (or De Grasse,(French) who found their way to Holland then to England, and from thence to the new world, after looking about some time they located in the western part of the colony of Connecticut in what is known as the State the County of Fairfield. The eldest settled in Old Fairfield, which is near Long Island Sound, a few miles West of Bridgeport. The 2d settled at Stamford and the 3d or youngest at Danbury, so that that they were at about equal distances from each other, our fathers were of the Danbury family. I have within a few years learned that Grasse when translated from the French to English is Weed. The names of these brothers I do not recollect. Their occupation at Lyons was that of silk weavers, but when they came to this infant country they turned their attention to Agriculture. My fathers name was Jonathan, my grand sire was Benjamin, my great grand sire was Samuel who died in Danbury. My father had a brother whose name was Benjamin, my grand father had two brothers whose names I remember, one was Jacob the other Eleazer.

Jacob & B. removed from Philips Patent in what is now called Pawlings town or thereabouts in the State of N. Y. They had been tenants to Philips some years, but an old chief whose was Nimham pretended to be the owner and they and many others bought the soil of the Indians and they refused to pay rent to Philips who came with an army of regulars so-called, and drawn them off, and they came to Lanesborough and settled in the west part of the town called Silver Street. This was ten years before the revo was if I recollect right. My grand Mothers maiden name on the Fathers side was Elizabeth Hubbell she had a brother Ichabod H. who was 80 years when I was 5. I just remember him. My father & Jonathan had 3 sisters Elizabeth, Deborah & Huldah. The first married Joel Reynolds 2 John Wood 3 Alvin Wait. Rey.- died at Hector, Tompkins Co., N. Y. Wood & Wait settled with your grandFather in Swanton Vt. The Woods, Weeds, Meads, Sprague, Rockwells, Lobdills &c. were all tenants of Philips and lost all and came and settled in one neighborhood in a few years after the revolution they scattered abroad. My great Uncle Jacob W. had 6 sons H. A. I. S. I. E. These all settled in Pittsford, Rutland Co. Vt., thence they scattered north and west.

To George W. Weed S. H. Weed.

Copy of Memorandum made by Samuel C. Wead Nov. 1874.

The preceeding is a hasty copy of a letter to Geo. W. Weed from the signer in 1845 or thereabouts who was then residing in N. Y. and about 80 years old. G. W. W. was then a lawyer in Albany, since dead. He has now a brother in Albany, who I once met, and as he was a fine looking fellow was told he looked near enough like me to be my son. I know but little of his family. The Jacob Wead above spoken of was my grand father, at whose funeral I was present in Pittsford in about 1811 to 14. The services were in the church and I think attended by Rev. Samuel Haines known as the Colored Preacher- In my fathers family bible I have written out so much of the history of the family the 6 sons as I recollect.

The above letter was copied from the original by Sister Mary S. W. Russell.

Dear Cousin:-

I think when last I saw you that I spoke of going to Pittsford Burying-Ground when next I visited Brandon. I was in B- some ten days ago and took the opportunity of driving over. I found the graves of our ancestors, and copied the inscripti ons I send you herewith. You will notice Jacob and his son Amasus names vary a little in the spelling, and it seems to me likely that Jacob spelled as had been down previously, and that Amasus made the change in which John joined him, and the other brothers, Hezekiah, Jacob, Samuel, and Ezra returned to the old way. I found in Pittsford, a son of Amasus' daughter of the name of Hitchcock, but he seemed to know or care very little about his genealogy, not even being aware of where his grandparents were buried., though the place was less than 20 rods from his house. He is reputed to be worth some $200,000. and has had trouble with his second wife from whom he is separated. He has a house in Washington and lives there most of the time with a married daughter.

Have learned nothing more to speak of about the Weads and Waites of Swanton, but found in a Waite record that Oliver Waite was born in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. in 1765 and died (here I suppose) in 1843 at 78 years of age.

Huldah Wead, wife of Oliver Waite born 1765, Lanesboro, Mass. died in 1852 at 87 years; had five sons and three daughters all of whom lived to have families.

I am alone yet, my folks having not yet returned from Canton.

Yours sincerely,

(signed) D. D. Wead.

American Biographical History of Eminent and Self-Made Men with Portrait Illustrations on Steel, Volumes I-II
Name:

Name: Rev. Ira Mason Weed
Ypsilanti, was born January 14, 1804, in Hinesburg, Vermont. His father, John Weed, was a native of Danbury, Connecticut; and his mother, Dolly Phelps, was born in Pittsfield, Massachusetts. Mr. Weed's early life was passed among the hills of his native State. He prepared for college with his brother-in-law, Rev. Mr. Johnson, of Hopkinton, New York, entering the University of Vermont, at Burlington, in the Sophomore year; and graduated in 1825. With the intention of making the law his profession, he spent one year in the office of Judge Fine, of Ogdensburg, New York. During this time, his conversion took place, and his thoughts turned toward the Christian ministry. He at once relinquished his law studies, and entered Andover Theological Seminary. In the spring of 1829, he was licensed, by the association at Andover, to preach the Gospel; and, during the fall of the same year, was ordained at the Park Street Church, Boston. In May, 1830, he was married to Miss Caroline N. Dutton, of Hillsboro, New Hampshire, and removed to Ypsilanti, Michigan, where he entered upon his chosen work. Here he found a few to co-operate with him, although many sought to counteract his influence. His consistent Christian life, however, his bold presentation of truth, and his fearless denunciation of wickedness, won for him the respect and esteem of the entire community. He maintained a firm and decided stand in the cause of temperance, but with so much wisdom that those who were engaged in the sale of liquor harbored no ill will toward him, and when he left the place they expressed regret at his departure. In the fall of 1834, Mr. Weed was installed as pastor of the Presbyterian Church to which he had already ministered for four years. His earnestness, good judgment, and thorough acquaintance with the rules of the church, made him a valued member of Presbytery and Synod, while he often represented his constituents in the General Assembly. Although devoted to the interest of his own church, he was in full sympathy with other religious denominations, and many of his warmest friends were connected with other churches. In 1847 he removed to Chicago, Illinois, having accepted the position of District Secretary for the North-west, of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. This cause had always lain near his heart, and he engaged in the work with characteristic ardor. His field of labor embraced Northern Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, and Minnesota. During those days there were no railroads, and the greater portion of his traveling was done in his own conveyance. He continued in this position for ten years, laying broad foundations of benevolence in the churches, and, at the same time, aiding pastors in their work. In 1855 he removed to Waukegan, Illinois; and, after remaining two years, accepted the agency of the educational institution which was projected at Lake Forest, one of the suburbs of Chicago. In 1862 he removed to Granville, Illinois, where he ministered to the Presbyterian Church, of that place, for four years. At the end of this time, he returned to Ypsilanti, Michigan, his health being much impaired. Unable to resume pastoral work, the few remaining years of his life were spent in filling vacant churches in the vicinity. His death occurred on Thanksgiving day, November 30, 1871, at Ypsilanti. He left a wife, three daughters, and one son, to mourn his loss, and a large circle of friends to revere his memory. Mr. Weed was a man of warm sympathies, possessing remarkable power in winning the affections even of those whose lives were not in accordance with his teachings. He had genuine love for children, and possessed the rare power of interesting and pleasing, at the same time that he instructed and guided them. His religion was that of calm devotion, settled conviction, and firm principles. He was a close student of the Bible, and eminently a man of prayer. His name is greatly honored, and his influence still lives.

American Biographical History of Eminent and Self-Made Men with Portrait Illustrations on Steel, Volumes I-II
Name:

Name: Rev. Ira Mason Weed
Ypsilanti, was born January 14, 1804, in Hinesburg, Vermont. His father, John Weed, was a native of Danbury, Connecticut; and his mother, Dolly Phelps, was born in Pittsfield, Massachusetts. Mr. Weed's early life was passed among the hills of his native State. He prepared for college with his brother-in-law, Rev. Mr. Johnson, of Hopkinton, New York, entering the University of Vermont, at Burlington, in the Sophomore year; and graduated in 1825. With the intention of making the law his profession, he spent one year in the office of Judge Fine, of Ogdensburg, New York. During this time, his conversion took place, and his thoughts turned toward the Christian ministry. He at once relinquished his law studies, and entered Andover Theological Seminary. In the spring of 1829, he was licensed, by the association at Andover, to preach the Gospel; and, during the fall of the same year, was ordained at the Park Street Church, Boston. In May, 1830, he was married to Miss Caroline N. Dutton, of Hillsboro, New Hampshire, and removed to Ypsilanti, Michigan, where he entered upon his chosen work. Here he found a few to co-operate with him, although many sought to counteract his influence. His consistent Christian life, however, his bold presentation of truth, and his fearless denunciation of wickedness, won for him the respect and esteem of the entire community. He maintained a firm and decided stand in the cause of temperance, but with so much wisdom that those who were engaged in the sale of liquor harbored no ill will toward him, and when he left the place they expressed regret at his departure. In the fall of 1834, Mr. Weed was installed as pastor of the Presbyterian Church to which he had already ministered for four years. His earnestness, good judgment, and thorough acquaintance with the rules of the church, made him a valued member of Presbytery and Synod, while he often represented his constituents in the General Assembly. Although devoted to the interest of his own church, he was in full sympathy with other religious denominations, and many of his warmest friends were connected with other churches. In 1847 he removed to Chicago, Illinois, having accepted the position of District Secretary for the North-west, of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. This cause had always lain near his heart, and he engaged in the work with characteristic ardor. His field of labor embraced Northern Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, and Minnesota. During those days there were no railroads, and the greater portion of his traveling was done in his own conveyance. He continued in this position for ten years, laying broad foundations of benevolence in the churches, and, at the same time, aiding pastors in their work. In 1855 he removed to Waukegan, Illinois; and, after remaining two years, accepted the agency of the educational institution which was projected at Lake Forest, one of the suburbs of Chicago. In 1862 he removed to Granville, Illinois, where he ministered to the Presbyterian Church, of that place, for four years. At the end of this time, he returned to Ypsilanti, Michigan, his health being much impaired. Unable to resume pastoral work, the few remaining years of his life were spent in filling vacant churches in the vicinity. His death occurred on Thanksgiving day, November 30, 1871, at Ypsilanti. He left a wife, three daughters, and one son, to mourn his loss, and a large circle of friends to revere his memory. Mr. Weed was a man of warm sympathies, possessing remarkable power in winning the affections even of those whose lives were not in accordance with his teachings. He had genuine love for children, and possessed the rare power of interesting and pleasing, at the same time that he instructed and guided them. His religion was that of caim devotion, settled conviction, and firm principles. He was a close student of the Bible, and eminently a man of prayer. His name is greatly honored, and his influence still lives.

John Weed and Louise (Richmond) Weed
Samuel Weed
Reuben Weed and wife (Meesor or Mepser)
Nathaniel Weed and Polly (Wiseman) Weed

Nathaniel Weed and Jane (Turner) Weed
Rev. Samuel Henry Weed (1843-1927).

John Weed, son of our Jonas Weed married Joanne Westcoat in 1664 as mentioned elsewhere. But the above may be a key to the family in England. Perhaps Jonas and John were sons of Jonas and Mary Jane; if so, Jonas and Mary Jane lived in Stanwick, England.

Now we shall leave the field of speculation, and get back to the little band of men following Indian trails across Connecticut.

On 14 September 1634 they had petitioned the Governor of Massachusetts for permission to remove because of dissatisfaction with the Church at Watertown. Those signing the petition were: Robert Reynolds, John Strickland, Jonas Weede, Rev. John Sherman, Robert Coe, and Andrew Ward. However, their request was not granted until 6 May 1635, when they were authorized to "form a new Church Covenant in the River Connecticut."

In the summer of 1636, through the action of the above mentioned men, permission was granted by the Commission then governing the Connecticut Plantations, to form the Church at Wethersfield. The record of the Court at its session in the newly settled "New Town" (Hartford) 26 April 1636 is as follows; the members of the Court being Roger Ludlow, Esq., Mr. Steel, Mr. Phelpes, Mr. Westwood, and Mr. Warde: "Whereas there was a dismission granted figured - there was no way to determine longitude at sea. Equipment for this was not available for mariners until the latter half of the next century.

Jonas Weed is listed in the passage list of the Ship Arbella, which was the Admiral Ship (or Flag Ship). John Winthrop, Sir Richard Saltonstall, and many of the members of the government of the Massachusetts Bay Colony were on this ship. Banks tells us that the Arbella was bought by the passengers, to be sold later. So Jonas, who evidently was a man of some means, was probably a part owner of the ship. The twenty-fifth name on the sailing list was Jonas Weed. The Arbella was a ship of three hundred fifty tons, and was manned with a crew of fifty-two seamen, but the number of officers is not given, probably not less than fifteen of all ranks. The Arbella had previously been named the "Eagle", and Captain Peter Milburne was its Master. When the ship was bought and renamed the "Arbella" in honor of Lady Arbella, Captain Milburne remained with the ship. From all available information it seems the Arbella was the largest of the eleven ships. Probably there were not less than four hundred officers and seamen manning the entire fleet, and probably there were not less than eleven hundred passengers stowed away in these ships, perhaps an average of one hundred passengers to each ship. The cost for adults was five pounds per person. William Wood, a contemporary writer, said "Every man had ship provisions for his five pounds per man." This was salt beef, pork, salt fish, butter, cheese, pease pottage, water grewell, and such kind of "victuals", with good "biskets" and six shilling beere.

From: History of the Weed and Allied Families, Charles Allison Weed, Ph.D., Gateway Press, Baltimore, 1971 (1) (2)

THE ARBELLA

The Winthrop Fleet of 1630 was composed of eleven ships; how-r a number of other ships crossed the Atlantic with the Winthrop et, without being under Winthrop's control. There were at least rteen ships in the flotela. They sailed for New England in e of 1630. This was the nuclius of the Massachusetts Bay Colo-

This fleet brought the largest and most important company of landed at Boston at any one time, under one direction during of the early years of the "Puritan Invasion of the Indian land led Mathathusett."

Bo letter to his wife just before they sailed, John Winthrop
d there were 700 passengers aboard. Six months after arrival, omas Dudley wrote to the Countess of Lincoln, mother of Lady bella that about 200 of the emigrants died, and about 100 rerned to England; leaving about 400 colonists in the Massachusetts y Colony. The letter was sent to England on the Lyon, 1 April 631.

In addition to the fares for passengers, the cost of shipping usehold goods increased the financial problem for the emigrant.
gginson states that it cost 10 pounds to ship a horse to New gland. For the average Puritan family of eight persons the cost the trip would be about thirty pounds. There were 240 cows and out 60 horses transported in the fleet.

Navigators then had only the cross staff to ascertain the

WETHERSFIELD

Jonas Weed lived at Watertown until 29 May 1635, when he was one of six men who left Watertown to go to Pyquag (later named Wethersfield, Connecticut). This little band made the first substantial settlement in that Indian village, on the Connecticut River. And Wethersfield is the oldest white settlement in Connecticut. In June 1635 Thomas Hooker founded Hartford (New Town) ten miles up the Connecticut River from Wethersfield. "These six men are honored in the Connecticut Records, and their names occupy a place of prominence in the records of the colony. The record of their removal is the first item, of the first page, of the First Book of Records, for the first session of the first court assembled in that colony." (Washington's Ancestry, by Charles A. Hoppin). Like Lord Saltonstall, they were too liberal theologically to get along in Watertown.

In the Lineage Book of "The Daughters of American Colonists" (Vol. VII, p. 251) John Weede is also mentioned as one of the founders of Watertown, Massachusetts, and of Wethersfield, Connecticut. He evidently went along with Jonas although he was not a member of the Church.

In "Soldiers in King Philip's War" by George M. Bodge, p. 447 - John Weed of Salisbury is listed on a pay roll dated 24 December 1671, for one pound four shillings. Lt. Thomas Tracy is also listed on that page. In 1665 he is listed as Ensign Thomas Tracy. John Weede must have gone from Wethersfield to Salisbury, for on 20 December 1677 George Weede, son of John Weede of Salisbury, took the Oath of Allegiance at the same time as his father and his brothers Samuel and John. 14 November 1650 John had married Deborah, daughter of Samuel Winsley (or Winsly). Their children were:

Samuel - born 15 February 1652
Mary - born 5 September 1653
John - born 1 November 1655
Ann - born 26 July 1657
Deborah - born 15 June 1659, m. Christopher Barnard (Sect. of Newberry), 29 Nov. 1677
George - born 25 May 1661
Ephraim - born 24 February 1667

I have not followed this family line, but there will be references to it from time to time.

In "The National Cyclopedia of American Biography" (V. 22, p. 132) there is a genealogical line of Rev. Samuel Henry Weed, a Presbyterian Minister; b. Indianapolis - 1843; A.B., and A.M., Indiana University; Graduate of The Theological Seminary of the West (Pres.); died 21 July 1927 at Mommouth, Illinois. He was a descendant from John Weed and Deborah (Winsley) Weed, who were married in 1650. You will note that the genealogy copied below gives John Weed as the son of Jonas Weed and Mary Jane, daughter of George Smith Davidson. This could not have been the Jonas who came on the Arbella, for he and "Mary" were married about 1637, and their first daughter Elizabeth was born in 1637. Here we just have to make a guess which seems probable. Perhaps Jonas and John Weed were brothers, and their parents in Stanwick, England were Jonas Weed and Mary Jane (Davidson) Weed. Eventually I hope to be certain of the facts. The Genealogical list given in The National
